

Michael Broom is coming to Atlanta!

Initiating and leading positive change is difficult. Here's how to succeed!
You're invited to attend a JumpVine Workshop* -
Creating Positive Change in Organizations:
How to lead change while inspiring enthusiasm and engagement

Who should attend?

Business Owners, HR Leaders & Business Executives looking to improve profitability, productivity and employee engagement

Organizational Change & Coaching Professionals seeking the latest information to help improve effectiveness

Education and Non-Profit Leaders who want to improve organizational capabilities as they fulfill their mission

Friday September 15, 9am – 4pm
Marriott Courtyard Perimeter
6250 Dunwoody Rd., Atlanta, GA

Please join JumpVine Workshops for a workshop run by Dr. Michael Broom, President and CEO of the Center for Human Systems. Dr. Broom is a Lifetime Achievement Award Winner from the Organizational Development Network (International Organization for Organizational Development). This is Dr. Broom's first time leading a workshop in Atlanta, and your opportunity to learn from a world-renowned expert right in town!

Sign Up Now!

Cost of the program is only $795 and includes 3 follow-up coaching calls with a certified professional coach to solidify your personalized learning and create lasting change. That is a $375 value!

Early Bird Discount if you sign up by August 15. Click here for details

Sign up and learn more:
<http://www.jumpvine.net/workshops>

We look forward to seeing you on September 15!

Workshop Topics:

Conscious Use of Self:

- Learn to consciously choose your intentions. Improve your connections with others. Learn the role ego management plays in effectiveness

Energy Sponges:

- Learn to identify the habits that divert your energy away from your potential. Choose more effective alternatives

Human Systems:

- Increase your awareness of the many groups or systems of people in your life. Learn how to have a more positive impact wherever you are

Why Attend Workshop:

- Learn key principles of creating positive change
- Discuss the experience in small groups to maximize insights and see immediate practical application
- Increase self-awareness - the starting place for all positive change
- Create greater positive change in all of your relationships with less stress and effort
- Apply new insights and skills to your work and home life
- Meet like-minded people who can be future catalysts in your development
- Earn continuing education credits. Qualifies for 5 CE credit hours for HRCI and ICF
- Have fun while learning from one of the best in the field

* Why JumpVine Workshops?

JumpVine Workshops are Different! How many times have you left a "learning program" excited about the new concepts and insights- only to revert back to "normal" within a month? JumpVine Workshops solve this problem, here's how:

- Clear simple methodology to help turn insights into actions and new habits
- Post event coaching support- receive three (3) 30 minute individual coaching sessions via phone or teleconference after completion of workshop
- Receive the support and accountability you desire during the crucial 3-5 weeks after the workshop
- Experience individualized coaching and encouragement
- Develop clear, specific action steps to integrate the principles into your life and make them your own